

Telephone Consultations - Launched January 2010

In a Nutshell:

If you're serious about wanting to de-clutter on a budget then Telephone Consultations are a cost effective solution.

Telephone Consultations can work as a stand alone service, or in conjunction with hands-on de-cluttering. The Organised Chaos service is as varied as its clients!

How You Could Benefit from a Telephone Consultation:

Maybe you just want some advice on how to tackle a cluttered area, or you need help getting motivated and staying motivated. If you think you have the capacity to work on the problem alone, but just don't know where to start, then this service is for you.

How it works:

Firstly, get in touch and give me a brief description of your problem area. You could even e-mail me a photo of it!

I call you at the appointed time and make suggestions as to how you can tackle your clutter, based on AIDA, my four point action plan. You will receive an inclusive booklet by e-mail explaining how AIDA works, so you won't have to make notes as we talk.

The Formalities!

It's easy for you to book a Telephone Consultation. Simply provide me with contact details and an invoice address. Payment must be received before the consultation can go ahead.

One session will be enough if you just need a nudge in the right direction. If you want ongoing support, why not book 3 sessions? This saves you £5 and the sessions can be spaced to suit your schedule.

Pricing

45 minute sessions @ £25 each

3 x 45 minute sessions @ £70

(saving £5 on individual session price when booked together)

If you require more than three sessions, I will be pleased to quote you.

or e-mail me, clutter@judithmorris.co.uk

If you have any questions or require a different structure than the one above, please pick up the phone or drop me an e-mail.

Remember, I'm here to help!

Kind regards
